

ICW Associate Profile

Chris Odam – Associate Director

Summary

Chris has over twenty five years experience in Procurement and Supply Chain Management and ten years experience in Facilities Management, Quality and Business Improvement. He has worked in Manufacturing, Engineering, Aviation and Facilities Management sectors on a global basis. Having been associated with the Institute for Collaborative Working since the early 90's he has played an influential role in developing the Business Collaboration Standard and in engaging organisations to adopt Collaborative Working. Chris now works as an independent consultant.

Key Experience

Chris has held senior positions with Alstom and Siemens managing both site and regional procurement teams and leading global commodity groups. He achieved significant recognition during his time with NATS achieving CIPS Advanced Standard and leading NATS to become one of the first organisations to certify against the Business Collaboration standard BS11000. He was also selected as a finalist in the CIPS Procurement and Supply Chain Professional of the Year Awards. More recently, he has worked in the FM sector for Sodexo as Global VP FM Platform Deployment. This involved the roll out of Global FM systems and working with various functional and site based teams on process improvement and operational efficiency.

Key Qualifications and Professional Memberships

- CIPS Corporate Certification Assessor
- Institute of Leadership & Management Certified ISO 44001 Facilitator
- Agile Scrum Master
- Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Purchasing & Supply (CIPS)

Institute for Collaborative
Working

Building
Business
Relationships