

Frank Lee

Chief Executive Officer

Summary

Frank started his career at CIBA Geigy where we work as a chemist in their pharmaceutical research Laboratories. He is joining ICW at the start of 2023 after over 30 years with BSI he started with BSI as a client manager, he then worked in new product development, product management, was Operation Director for Continental Europe Middle East and Africa region overseeing BSI assessment delivery across the whole region.

Frank then went on to be regional Director for the Northern European region where he had R&L responsibility for Germany, France Holland, and Scandinavian countries.

He became EMEA Compliance & Risk Director, and in moved in 2021 into the role of UK&I product Certification Director.

Frank has been responsible for the introduction into the BSI Portfolio of a number of new products including integrated management systems, OHSAS 18001 (now ISO 45001), BS 11000 (now ISO 44001).

Frank developed the ISO 44001 Certification scheme now used for the certification of organisations to ISO 44001, he has been a fellow on the institute of collaborative working since 2014 and was the Collaborative leader of the year in 2018. Frank Moved to ICW at the start of 2023 as Chief Executive Officer.

